

SPRING/SUMMER 2009

the knot

TEXAS

Theknot.com/texas

our favorite texas weddings

10 hot reception trends

creative favor ideas

glamorous gowns and where to buy them

the ultimate wedding guide to:
Dallas/Fort Worth | Houston | Austin
San Antonio & across the state

reagan & anthony

BEE CAVE • December 1 photography by Hyde Park Photography

their story

Reagan Nunnally (33 and an agency leader) first caught Anthony Napolitano's (29 and a team leader) attention during a Secret Santa exchange. The two worked together, and when Anthony found out Reagan got her Secret Santa a Sports Illustrated swimsuit calendar and homemade chocolate chip cookies, he was hooked. Fast-forward to the following Christmas, when Reagan and Anthony—by now an item—were spending the night wrapping holiday gifts for children and families in need. Anthony had picked up an engagement ring earlier that day and planned to give it to Reagan that evening, but wrapping presents took a little longer than he thought. The couple didn't get home until nearly 2 a.m.! After what felt like an eternity, he finally got his shot and proposed in front of the Christmas tree. —SEK

the centerpieces

To go with their simple, Old West theme, the centerpieces were cast-iron trees decorated with hanging votive candles and carnation pomanders.

the programs

Corrugated card stock gave the programs a rustic feel, and the wax seal at the center coordinated perfectly with the save-the-dates that the couple sent their guests.

the escort cards

The escort cards were placed in tiny brown paper bags and hung with clothespins in front of the saloon of the Star Hill Ranch.

the cake

Instead of one cake, the couple served their guests a variety of mini cakes with flavors like tr s leches, yellow cake with chocolate icing and pumpkin cheesecake.

the ceremony

The chapel on the Star Hill Ranch was too small to hold all of the couple's 185 guests. Instead, they set up white chairs, lined the aisle with red and white rose petals and were married in the gazebo. >>

the ceremony décor

Red carnation pomanders hung from chairs at the end of each aisle.

the first dance

The couple had their first dance to Lyle Lovett's "She's No Lady, She's My Wife," performed by the bride's best friend.

their ingredients

CEREMONY SITE Star Hill Ranch
(512) 565-6746, Bee Cave

RECEPTION SITE Star Hill Ranch
(512) 565-6746, Bee Cave

PHOTOGRAPHY Brad Lemon/Hyde Park
Photography, HydeParkPhoto.com

VIDEOGRAPHY Ladyflash Productions
(512) 585-3939, Austin

CONSULTANT Jessica Moore and Becky Brock, Something to Celebrate (512) 733-6130, Austin

OFFICIANT Mike Rinehart
(512) 785-6149, Austin

GOWN Cristos

HAIR AND MAKEUP Debi Podvalova
(817) 917-2287, Dallas/Ft. Worth

INVITATIONS Hello!Lucky
(415) 355-0008, San Francisco, CA

FLOWERS Society Finch Events and Floral Design (512) 797-4942, Austin

RENTAL EQUIPMENT Marquee Event
Group (512) 491-7368, Austin; ILIOS
Lighting (512) 440-7045, Austin

CATERING Dagars of Austin Caterer, Inc.
(512) 719-5524, Austin

MUSIC Blind Date (512) 560-7465, Austin;
The Lost Pines (917) 359-2770, Austin

ENTERTAINMENT Cigars: Bobalu Cigar Co.
(888) 332-4427, Austin; burros: Ralph Fisher's
Photo Animals (979) 247-4999, La Grange

TRANSPORTATION Buses: Transportation Consultants (512) 930-4835, Georgetown; getaway car: Kevin Zieschang (512) 626-7589, Austin

ACCOMMODATIONS Driskill Hotel
(512) 474-5911, Austin

HONEYMOON Tahiti, booked through Tahiti
Travel (800) 747-9997, Los Angeles, CA